June 27th-July 2 Leadership Training will be at Camp Wahoo following First Aid. Come prepared for a busy week of continued training for your leadership position where each day will be spent with the horses. Those of you that master the basic skills needed to assist with the campers & their horses will begin to learn how to pack the mules for the lunch rides and overnights. Daily classes in Kid Tech will teach you about the different learning styles and allow you to assist in recognizing the different needs of campers. Learning to assist in archery, map & compass, outdoor survival, outdoor cooking, shelter building, knot tying, environmental awareness, care of the riding & packing equipment, setting up an overnight camp & responsibilities on the trail rides. When you return to camp you will sleep in a tent with campers, assist them in the daily chores, help in the camp kitchen & on overnights.

Experts are brought in throughout the week of training to prepare you & enhance your skills.

Jr Staff Training and Planning Jr. Staff will be assisting in setting up program areas, first week of camp, planning for training week, trail clearing and possibly setting up out-camps; snow permitting.

Adventurer Week: Aug 8 - Aug 13

Participation will allow you to further your horsemanship skills and to ride farther into the back country on trails that you will not experience otherwise. The Adventurer program has been redesigned to accommodate the CIT's allowing for more responsibility in the success of your trip. The hands-on horse handling, decision making, outdoor living and people skills you will gain will enhance your CIT experience and will remain with you for a lifetime. Life-long friends & memories are made as an Adventurer. Both programs are co-ed. Go to website to sign up on the camper registration form.

WHAT TO DO NEXT

Fill out the application and mail in with the required fee's. Include the dates you will be available to return this summer. We will advise anyone asked to stay for first week prior to training.

Camp Wahoo is proud of the fact that many of our trip leaders have come from within our camping and leadership program. Skills learned here can be applied for a lifetime.

Jr. Staff Program:

The Jr. Staff Program is an Apprenticeship training for those seeking an opportunity to further develop their leadership abilities as part of a positive working environment or for those considering a paid position after turning 18 & high school graduation.

Jr Staff must be at least 16 years of age or older. Qualifications include being actively involved in the Counselor in Training program & willing to work with campers. The Adventurers is a hands-on learning experience where important skills are developed in a very intensive week out in the back country. These are the necessary skills that are needed to be successful as a trip leader.

Evaluations will be done and available for each participant in the CIT training week and are required to be considered for the Jr. Staff Apprenticeship program. There will be opportunity to focus on specific areas of interest.

Please let us know via e-mail if you are interested in being considered.
