June 21-June 26 Leadership Training Come prepared for a busy week of training for your leadership position where each day will be spent with the horses. Those of you that master the basic skills needed to assist with the campers & their horses will begin to learn how to pack the mules. Classes in Kid Tech will teach you about the different learning styles and allow you to assist in recognizing the different needs of campers. Learning to assist in archery, map & compass, outdoor survival, outdoor cooking, shelter building, knot tying, environmental awareness, care of the riding & packing equipment, setting up an overnight camp & responsibilities on the trail rides. When you return to camp you will sleep in a tent with campers, assist them in the daily chores, help in the camp kitchen & on overnights.

Wrangler Requirement: CIT Candidates must have completed or be enrolled in the Wranglers Program. This can be done during the season after training week if needed. Successfully complete CIT Training and attend a week as a Wrangler ($500 Discount) to be eligible to return as a counselor. Use a Camper Registration to sign up.

Adventurer Week: Aug 2 - Aug 7

Participation will allow you to further your horsemanship skills and to ride farther into the back country on trails that you will not experience otherwise. The Adventurer program has been redesigned to accommodate the CIT's allowing for more responsibility in the success of your trip. The hands-on horse handling, decision making, outdoor living and people skills you will gain will enhance your CIT experience and will remain with you for a lifetime. Life-long friends & memories are made as an Adventurer. Both programs are co-ed. Go to website to sign up on the camper registration form.

WHAT TO DO NEXT

Fill out the application and mail in with the required fees. Include the dates you will be available to return this summer. Only returning CIT/JS will be asked to stay for first week after training week.

If signing up for Discounted Wranglers/Adventurer, use the Camper Registration form.

July 21nd Check-In is 10am for everyone Including those not in First Aid. First Aid cards are good for two years. If you took the class with us last year, we have you on file.

Please get your Food Handlers card online if you don't have one.

~Get medical & release forms from the website and send with application. You will be emailed a staff handbook and forms. Print and bring with you to training week.

~New CIT Candidates bring letter of recommendation & essay on "Why I Want to be a CIT".

~Start working on the 'What to Bring List' available on the website.

~ Jr Staff and Staff should have a personal radio.
Example: Motorola Talkabout FRS on ebay $20

Camp Wahoo is proud of the fact that many of our trip leaders have come from within our camping and leadership program. Skills learned here can be applied for a lifetime.

Jr. Staff Program:

The Jr. Staff Program is an Apprenticeship training for those seeking an opportunity to further develop their leadership abilities as part of a positive working environment or for those considering a paid position after turning 18 & high school graduation.

Jr Staff must be at least 16 years of age or older. Qualifications include being actively involved in the Counselor in Training program & willing to work with campers.

The Adventurers is recommended for those looking to move up to staff. It's a hands-on learning experience where important skills are developed in a very intensive week out in the back country. These are the necessary skills that are needed to be successful as a trip leader. Use a Camper Registration form to sign up.

Evaluations will be done and available for each participant in the Leadership program and used to be considered for the Jr. Staff Apprenticeship program. There will be opportunity to focus on specific areas of interest.
